The Case of the Anti-Snappers Will Be Considered Also.

Members of the Democratic State Committhe Hoffman House, began to arrive at the hotel this morning. As matters of the utmost importance relating to campaign management are to be considered, a very full attendance is expected. Among the earliest arrivals were: Walker, of Kimira; Judge Ik Cady Herrick, of Albany; Secretary Samuel W. Beardatey, of Syracuse; Lieut.-Gov. Sheeban, of Buffalo, and Chairman Murphy, of Troy, as it is required.

Mr. Beardaley has just returned from a yachting trip with Senator Hill in Ed Stoker's yacht, Fra Diavolo, and is supposed to carry the Senator's wishes to Murphy and Sheehan.

The Committee was empowered by the February State Convention to nominate a candidate for Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals to succeed the late William C. Ruger.

candidate for chief Judge of the Court of Appeals to succeed the late William C. Ruger. There was talk some time ago of nominating Judge Isaac S. Maynard, who was appointed by Gov. Hill when Judge Ruger died to take the place of Judge Robert Earl, who in turn was designated to act as Chief Judge. Judge Maynard's selection is opposed by some because he was involved in the controversor over the Dutchess County returns. It is said that Judge Maynard's name will therefore not be presented, and that Judge Ruffus W. Peckham, of Albany, now an Associate Justice of the Court of Appeals, will be the choice.

The understanding is said to be, if Judge Peckham is nominated that Gov. Flower will reappoint Judge Maynard to fill Judge Peckham is nominated that Gov. In the meantime Judge Maynard's friends say they will be able to prove that the juriat has been foully siandered by a partisan press. Judge Peckham was elected to his present piace in 1886 for a full term of fourteen years. He is a brother of Wheeler H. Peck-ham, of this city, and is a son of Rufus W. The body was discovered about 8 o'clock this morning by the housekeeper, Mary Herman, who had missed old Bretthouse for a couple of days, and, thinking perhaps that he was III, she went to his door and knocked. Heceiving no DOCFORS MCCOY AND WILDHAM, response she went out on the fire-escape from which she could see into his room which was on the third floor, in the rear of the house. From there she saw the body of bretthouse lying on the bod, and a revolver which was lying on the floor induced her to believe that omething was wrong. She called in Officer Cronin, who burst open From a letter which was found in the room
